5. Judging Activities

Judges' Review Session (Instruction)

For the judges instruction (as at the World Games which was the first Championships of the new cycle), the Acro TC used well prepared power points for E and A judging. These included short video clips of elements and deductions from the COP were identified. The judges watched the clips and then gave their deductions, by the rules, which they then could check against those provided during the instruction.

Judges' Draw

The judges draw commenced before for the qualifications took place in the morning and the afternoon before the sessions started and they were conducted professionally and efficiently.

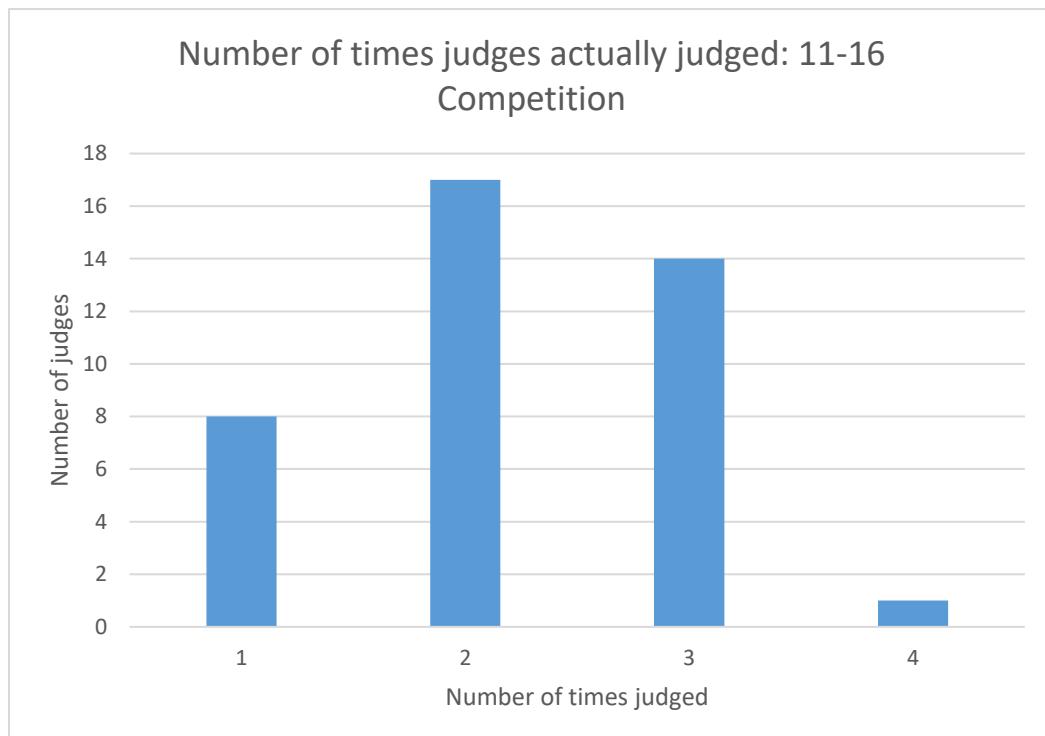

For the finals, the draws only included independent judges and the draws took place immediately before the respective final.

Assessment of the judging

D Panel

The D judges were very consistent and they correctly applied the same criteria to evaluate the performances of the gymnasts.

E and A panels

The Acro TC carried out an evaluation of the exercises of each discipline and for all competition phases. This evaluation led to the following outcomes:

- The objectivity and quality of the work of the judges is to be commended and the judges were reviewed according to the regulations.

Judges Placement

Thanks to the seating position for the judges outside the FOP, the view to evaluate the routines was excellent.

There were no inquiries at all during the competition.

Respectfully submitted,

Rosy Taeymans
President FIG Acrobatics Technical Committee

With the statistical assistance of Karl Wharton, TC member, secretary.
