2024 Olympic Games report:

What a show we enjoyed in Paris! Trampoline Gymnastics delivered a mesmerising event with the main Sports scenario possible. The presence of our sport at the Olympics is limited to two sessions, but both were massively attended, with a huge demand of tickets and an impressive atmosphere in the Bercy Arena. This venue is a well-known location for Trampoline Gymnastics, as World Championships back in 1986 took place there. And if what happened in 1986 stays in a prominent position of our history, we can be sure and proud that the competition in 2024 will remain at the same or higher level.

Ivan LITVINOVICH (AIN) flew at an amazing height to capture his second consecutive title as men’s Olympic Champion in individual trampoline, well seconded by two Chinese gymnasts (Zisai WANG and Langyu YAN) in the podium.

	Gold	Silver	Bronze
Men	LITVINOVICH Ivan (AIN)	WANG Zisai (CHN)	YAN Langyu (CHN)
Women	PAGE Bryony (GBR)	BARDZILOUSKAYA Vyaleta (AIN)	METHOT Sophiane (CAN)

The women’s event kept the same attention as the men’s competition. Current World Champion Bryony PAGE (GBR) managed to step into the only spot of the podium that she had not previously climbed to. She became the first gymnast in Trampoline Gymnastics able to complete the set of three Olympic medals. Vyaleta BARDZILOUSKAYA (AIN), relying on an impressive time of flight score, managed to obtain a brilliant silver medal: the fourteen years of difference between Bryony and Vyaleta prove the evident diversity that can be found in our sport. Sophiane METHOT (CAN) brought the maple leaf flag again to one of event where Canadians have been more successful during the current century.

The historical medal table of Trampoline Gymnastics, after having completed seven events between 2000 and 2024, stands as follows:

NOC	Gold	Silver	Bronze	Total
CHN	4	5	7	16
BLR	3	1	0	4
CAN	2	3	3	8
RUS	2	2	0	4
GBR	1	1	1	3
UKR	1	1	0	2
GER	1	0	1	2
AUS	0	1	0	1
NZL	0	0	1	1
UZB	0	0	1	1
Total	14	14	14	42

Scores of the gymnasts:

It is remarkable to see the level of difficulty mastered at a high level of execution:

Difficulty, average 18.2 for top 5 men, two ladies on the podium at 15.0.

Exceptional Time of Flight from both AIN:

- Bardzilouskaia, almost one second more than the next gymnast
- Litvinovich, other 0.7 second more than the next gymnast.

Exceptional Horizontal displacement of CAN woman gymnast Methot, 9.8

Very good ratio of completed exercises:

- Women qualification 84%
- Women finals 87%
- Men qualification 71%
- Men finals 87%

Duty of the judges:

After the post review, JEP (Judge evaluation program) provided TC president with full report that shows a very good work of the full panel.

We had mostly judges from Europe (results from JEP after World championships and 5 world cup 2023 - 2024), we should probably introduce a quota per continent other eligible judges ranked in the top of the list.
